WHO WE ARE

The Columbia Economic Development Corporation (CEDC) was created in 2005 to manage and direct state loans and funds for the Turkey Hill Experience project. A not-for-profit corporation, CEDC strives to create an atmosphere that nourishes planned business growth and family sustainable employment opportunities and has a proven track record of success. CEDC does not charge for services, is not funded by any governmental sources, and depends solely on fundraising and grants. All funds are used to work with investors and implement the current economic development strategic plan and initiatives in Columbia Borough.
